Thank you @SFBART for putting up these signs about wearing backpacks on crowded trains. You listened and it's greatly appreciated.

I feel like I made this @SFBART sign. Yes it needs to be that direct bc clearly bozos disregard the bottom sign all the time.

Hahahahaha "I'm NOT a bathroom! :(" says BART elevator.

SFBART @SFBART

We enlisted graphic design students from the @CACollegeofArts in SF to help combat bad behavior and encourage etiquette. The new posters will be displayed on trains and in stations throughout the year. See the full collection and read the backstory: ...

This is totally awesome, @SFBART! Eye-catching, cute, and uses a light touch. I recently saw the collection of public transportation etiquette posters at the @NYTransitMuseum, and this one reminds me of some of my favorites there. Kudos! 👍

.@SFBART is rolling out a new ad campaign to remind people of their manners/behavior. Does it surprise you we've reached the point where we have to tell people there's a difference between an elevator and a bathroom? Or to stand up for a disabled person or pregnant woman? @CBSSF
